

Historian

The Historian reports to the Senior Patrol Leader (SPL) or an Assistant Senior Patrol Leader (ASPL) and performs the following duties:

1. Maintains the Troop's Scrap Book by actively soliciting for photographs, maps, drawings, brochures and outing reports from the SPL for each outing or event and from the other participants, both youth and adult. He will display these items in a neat and informative manner in the scrap book.
2. He will also collect any newspaper articles that highlight activities of the Troop or members of the Troop and display these in the scrap book.
3. Create a Tri-Fold display for each COH highlighting Troop activities from the preceding COH to the present.
4. Collect and display in an appropriate manner any awards or commendations earned by the Troop or members of the Troop. These should be displayed short term in the Troop Display Case and then moved to a longer term storage/display book or file. He should label or otherwise identify the awards with the Patrol Name, individual scout(s) if not a Patrol Award, date, place and reason the award was given.
5. He will make available to the Troop Webmaster any photo disks, flash drives or any other media that contains images or text that would be of interest on the Troop Web Site. He will maintain a catalogue of photo disks or any other electronic storage media for use by the Recruiting Team as needed.
6. He will write and submit articles about a minimum of two Troop events.
7. He will fulfill any record keeping function assigned to him for a camp out or event. This should include a weather report, but may include other facts of the event deemed relevant.
8. Lives by the Scout Oath, the Scout Law and shows Scout Spirit.
9. Enthusiastically and correctly wears the Scout uniform.
10. Sets a good example for others.
